ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the respondents No.4 and 5 are neither necessary nor proper party to this special civil application. This request made is granted and the names of respondents No.4 and 5 are deleted both from the special civil application and civil application.

2. Rule. As the respondents are represented by the advocates, the matter is complete. On the request of counsel for the parties, the matter is taken up for hearing today.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the order passed by the Court on 10th May, 2000 in civil application has been complied with by the petitioners. This has not been disputed by the counsel for the respondents.

4. Learned counsel for the parties are in agreement that the special civil application and civil application may be disposed of in terms that the Additional Registrar of the Cooperative Societies, Gandhinagar may decide the Appeal No. 19 of 1998 pending before it within a period of three months from the date of receipt of writ of this order and till then the interim relief which has been granted by this Court in civil application may be ordered to be continue. This prayer made by the counsel for the parties deserves acceptance.

5. Both the special civil application and civil application are disposed of in terms that the Additional Registrar of the Cooperative Societies, Gandhinagar is directed to decide the Appeal No. 19 of 1998 pending before it within a period of three months from the date of receipt of writ of this order. The interim relief granted in the civil application shall continue till the decision of the appeal aforesaid. Rule in both the matters stand disposed of in the terms aforesaid.
